Laura D. Walter

DEC 23, 1961 - OCT 2, 2013

Laura D. Walter, age 51 of Easton, PA, passed away peacefully after a courageous 15 month battle with breast cancer on Wednesday, October 2, 2013, at her daughter's residence with her loving family by her side. She was born in Bryn Mawr, PA on December 23, 1961, daughter of the late John Heffner and Frances D. (Davidson) Corbett.

Ms. Walter, formerly of Montgomery County, PA, was a loving mother and grandmother who had immense love for her grandchildren and cherished every moment with them. She had a sarcastic sense of humor, a feisty wit and you could always expect a smile. She enjoyed spending time at the beach and taking long walks on Rehoboth Beach boardwalk and Long Beach Island. She was a fan of football especially the Patriots and watching Nascar with Dale Earnhart Sr. being her favorite driver. Her love and devotion to family will live in each of her children and grandchildren.

Ms. Walter is survived by her son Mark Walter, Jr. of Hatfield, PA; her two daughters, Heather Shirk and her husband Kyle of Fleetwood, PA and Meghan King and her husband Matt of Milton, DE; her two sisters, Anne Herr and her husband Gerry of Columbia, PA and Amy Saunders and her husband Spencer of New Hope, PA; her two nephews, Corey Williams and Aubrey Saunders; her niece, Lila Saunders; her two grandchildren, Liam Shirk and Gracelynn King.

All services are private.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions in Ms. Walter's name may be made to the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation, 5005 LBJ Freeway, Dallas, TX 75244.

Oh how I miss you my friend, you and I have been through so much together. You will always be in my heart. This past year was not what we had planed. You got to see your beautiful grandchildren be born, which was the most important thing to you. Your sprit will live on thru them. You rest easy now your kids are as strong as you are they will have you looking over them. LYA Alayne
