I met Irene while working at Milford Center where she was a resident. She was a very special person, and I became close friends with her during the 2 years that I worked there. My last day there was the 30th, and Irene was right there, front and center at my going away party. She wasn't feeling great, but she was there having a good time. I'm so glad she is not suffering any more.

No farewell words were spoken. No time to say good-bye. You were gone before we knew it, And only God knows why. My heart still aches in sadness And secret tears still flow. What it meant to lose you, No one will ever know. You were one of the most giving people I've ever meet. You will be missed. I Love you Mom Pinder. ~Bonnie~

Irene loved and cared for others. She cared for me when my dad was sick for months, and she was a wonderful comfort to my grandmother in her last days. "My flesh and my heart faileth, but God is the strength of my heart and my portion for ever." Psalms 73:26

"My favorite color is green, because it rhymes with my name, Irene!" Thank you for your many nights of babysitting me, putting up with my bratty little self. In the end, you taught me valuable life lessons, morals, & truths, all of which I remember to this day. I'm glad that you're no longer "suffering" & reaping the "benefits" of Obamacare. I'll be seeing you! XO?

Irene had a huge heart. She would have given you the shirt off of her back and her last dollar. She made the best tacos on the planet. You were loved Irene and will be missed.
