Tom , Wow !! You were always full of surprises and this is no exception , I have had so many memories of you going through my head jumping our bikes , seeing bigfoot tracks when we lived on Rt#9 in the snow haha the fruit stand incident and how we were duped into fessing up , the time we skipped school and went fishing it was cold my line got stuck & you put me in that boat tied to the tree to push me out to unstick it & the rope the boat was tied to the tree with broke I was so scared cause I couldn't swim and you ran along the river bank keeping an eye on me the whole time as you raced to the next set of rapids to try to catch me only to realize I had jumped out and luckily walked into shore leaving my rod and tackle box in the boat lost forever then walking home cold & wet to find mom also skipped work so we had to hide till school was out before going inside , catching the yard on fire when we lived in Harrington , The homemade bow and arrow incident , so many memories crabbing w/grandma & pop pop shew , man I didn't realize how much I forgot :(Rest In Peace Dear Brother
