Dominick Scaglione

DEC 24, 1942 - FEB 1, 2013

Dominick Scaglione, 70, of Rehoboth Beach, DE, passed away peacefully at home, surrounded by his beloved family and friends, on Friday, February 1, 2013. He was born in Brooklyn, NY, on December 24, 1942, son of the late Frank and Anna Scaglione.

Dominick grew up in Brooklyn, graduated from Abraham Lincoln High School and attended Brooklyn Community College. He moved to New Jersey once he met his future wife Susan. Dominick worked for several companies in New Jersey as a mechanical engineer specializing in packaging machinery; his last position was at Johnson & Johnson in Hopewell, New Jersey.

In 2003 Dominick and Susan built their future retirement home in Rehoboth Beach where they spent weekends until Dominick's retirement. Upon retiring in 2006, Mr. Scaglione moved permanently to Rehoboth Beach where he started his own handyman business, Mr. Dom, Odd Jobs & Finishing Touches. He was a jack-of-all-trades and a perfectionist in all that he did.

He was an avid salt water fisherman, spending many wonderful hours on his Grady White fishing the ocean and Delaware Bay. He also played a pretty good game of golf. One of his other favorite things to do was to cook breakfast for his beloved twin grandsons. He also made them a special dessert which they called the "grandpa special."

In addition to his loving wife of 45 years Susan Scaglione, Dominick is survived by his daughter Kristin Gemma and her husband Steven of Stewartsville, NJ; his son Robert Scaglione and his wife Maryann of Stewartsville, NJ; and his twin grandsons, William and Thomas Gemma. Dominick is also survived by his three sisters: Helen Scaglione and Mary Ann Bosso both of Brooklyn and Dolores Bowman and her husband Glenn of Ocala, Florida; his brother-in-law Peter Zocchi and his wife Susan of the Bronx, NY; as well as several nieces and nephews.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated on Wednesday, February 6 at 11:00 AM at St. Edmond Catholic Church, 409 King Charles Avenue, Rehoboth Beach, DE. The family will

Dear Sue and family, Dom was a wonderful man - a true family man and we know you will dearly miss him. He was a true VIA supporter willing to do whatever 'the ladies' needed or whatever Sue asked him to help with. May he finally rest in peace. Please accept our sincere condolences. Sue, please know that you have MANY friends to help. We certainly can never fill the void in your heart, but may help to soften your loneliness.

Dear Sue: I am so sorry to hear the passing of Dom, the love of your life. I know first hand what you are going through as you know, I am searching for answers too. I can only say that our Lord Jesus called our men to a better place where there is no pain or suffering. We are all born with a number and when its called we must go. We both so miss the love of our lives but knowing we will be united again when our time comes is comforting to me and will be for you. Please know you have my heart felt sympathy . Nancy
