My heart is full for the love of the Savior right now as I know that you are in His presence. I am so grateful for your family's love and belief in Jesus Christ, for they have had to lean on Him these past few months. Your great faith and belief has been an inspiration to Larry and I. There are so many kind words left unsaid and so many lost opportunities to visit, that I feel some wonderful loving experiences were not had in this life; yet, I know that in the next life there will be a greater understanding and even more love felt as we all recognize the real purpose in life is family and friends. May you rest in peace with your parents as you wait the arrival of other loved ones. We all will experience death in our own way some day - that is part of God's plan. I look forward to seeing you again when it is my time. With all of my love, Monica

Carol worked with us for four years before we decided on buying a condo in Lewes. She was so patient and kind and never hurried our decision. She also became a good friend and confidant. We will miss her smiling face and kind manner. She showed grace and strength throughout her illness.

Larry and I just want to say how sorry we were to hear about Carol's passing away on Wednesday. Larry and Paul grew up together and Carol and I became good friends when they lived in Olde Mill,in Seaford. We wish to let Paul and Graves know that we are keeping you both in prayer for peace and comfort, through Christ's love.
