Lynette Gentile

SEP 25, 1958 - DEC 26, 2012

Lynette Gomm Gentile of Smyrna, Delaware, died on December 26, 2012 at the Delaware Hospice Center following a courageous 5 year battle with Melanoma. She was born Sept. 25, 1958 in Logan Utah.

Lynette was a woman of many hats, a master florist, an accountant, loving wife, disciple of Jesus but her favorite job of all was being a mother and grandmother. She was a selfless person who always put others before herself. Christmas was her favorite holiday and nothing made her happier than decorating her home, making Christmas candy, and baking. She enjoyed traveling especially to Cancun Mexico, and her beloved Star Valley, Wyoming in the heart of the Rocky Mountains.

She was a member of Trinity Church in Smyrna, DE and the First State Corvette Club.

Lynette is survived by her loving husband Mike, daughter Krystal Bolduc and her husband Cory of Winnebago, IL., her son Kale English and his wife Lisa of San Antonio, TX., her step daughter Teresa Gentile of San Antonio, TX.; her amazing grandsons Ethan and Bryton Bolduc and her four legged kids Gus, Jax, and Lil' Bob.

Services will be private and at the convenience of the family.

In lieu of flowers donations may be made to the Delaware Hospice
100 Patriots Way, Milford , DE
