To Carol and Caroline and Kristina and all her children! You don't know me or remember me as you all were too young...I knew Joe and Betty and Joan and Carol since I could walk and talk..I lived next door at 709 Center. I was the pest who lived next door, and pestered the entire Schedivy family 24/7..how they ever delt with me, I don't know! I was a lonely and lost kid who they took in..no judgement against my parents..but they were always there for me..never judging or giving opinions of what happened next door..I will always love Joe and Betty, Carol and Joan for their kindness and trying to make me feel like I was normal kid, not a freak..Thank you God that they were in my life and made it so much better to grow up.. I apologize for all the endless hours I bugged them, but I thank all of them for every second and minute they gave me..I love you..Joe, Betty, Joan, Carol and all of your children..you all had the best Grandparents, parents, friends, etc..they were the BEST!!!
