Miss Fantasia you were always next to me to me for support no matter how tough the situation. From our meeting in 1996 we were instant friends.This week I looked back at some of our finer moments we shared and I got some of the biggest laughs and had a couple of the biggest cries. I could ramble on about some of them but girl I'm going to keep this PG Rated.I think you for many things but above all it was your push. You pushed me to do so many things and always gave me the confidence I didn't have. No matter if it was sink or swim you were right by my side at the end. And for that I'm forever thankful.Sister, I know you will shine bright like a large diamond in the sky. Until we meet again my friend!

She was always at the door of the Renegade. Sometimes with lipstick. Sometimes using eyeliner as lipstick! Finding the right color foundation could be a challenge to her, but her comments were witty and she could snap with the best of them, and it just didn't feel like the Renegade unless she was at the door to greet you! She was a celebrity and knew it. I loved that about her. She will be sorely missed. Madame Lee (Walker)
