Growing up you were always so kind and understanding of all the antics Nick and I were getting into. You were always there for us to take us skateboarding and spend quality time with us. I will never forget you Phil! I know you will always be proud of me and keeping your eye on me. I hope you and Pop Pop are curling up on the couch together and watching Matlock. I love you Grammy!

Dear Grammi, You will be missed. I have to say you were more of Grandmother to me than my own. I am very fortunate to have had the time to spend with you, listening to your stories, how you met Pop pop, your days growing up in MA, learning how to make your salad and much more. I feel blessed to have had the opportunity to have known such a wonderful lady! God Bless.
