I was married to the late Kenneth Nicola (Nic) Grossmiller. Terry is my mother-in-law and there could be no one as fun and special and we loved her. I was blessed that she was my mother-in-law and a sweet mom-mom to our daughter, her grand-daughter Tori. "Mom" was softspoken and had a big heart. My late husband always remarked that he was always so strong when she would say, "You can do it Ken, (Nic)" She was a great baker, seamstress plus all the things mentioned in the write-up. She was smart and always stood up for what was right. We have so many happy memories that she made extra special. Now I am sure the Lord was holding her arm on one side and her dear son, Nic on the other and she went dancing right into heaven...and on the feast day of the 3 Kings. What a celebration there must have been. We miss you Mom but we will see you again one day by the Mercy of God.
