Robert G. Kaiser

1917-2011

Robert G. Kaiser, beloved husband of Mary “Beth” Kaiser, passed away on September 23, 2011 at his home in Lewes, DE. He was the last of four sisters and one brother. He was born September 28, 1917 in Pittsburgh, PA, where he attended St. Raphael’s elementary and Central Catholic High School.

His family moved to Newark, NJ in the late fall of 1936. Following employment with both General Electric and Standard Container, he completed an aviation course at Bloomfield Vocational School.

In 1940 he joined Wright Aeronautical Corp. as a test engineer in the experimental aircraft engine development department. He progressed to shift supervisor. He earned a B.S. in mechanical engineering from the NJ Institute of Technology between 1937 and 1945 while employed full time. This was supplemented with additional studies at Cooper Union, and he acquired a Professional Engineer license in NY, NJ and FL.

He joined Clark and Vicario Corp. in 1951 for a 30 year career. He became Chief Engineer and then VP of Engineering and part owner. The firm specialized in vacuum and de-aeration in paper manufacturing, in which he was awarded twelve patents. He traveled extensively in the US, Europe and Asia.

He and wife Beth married in 1948, and lived in Glen Rock and then Ho-Ho-Kus, NJ. In 1975 they relocated to Seminole, FL, where he was a twenty year volunteer at St. Jerome Life Line Ministry.
