Please accept my heartfelt condolences and draw comfort from the scriptures in John 5:28,29 that talks about the resurrection hope; a time when loved ones will be raised up to conditions free from sickness, old age, and death. Yes Almighty God who cannot lie has promised to do this and it is a guarantee! I know that I cannot quench your sorrow; but I do hope that you will gain strength and comfort from this scripture as you cope with your loss.

To Grace, Linda and Jim and family, Joey and Caroline and family, and Maura and Greg and family: It is hard to find words to express our feelings to you at this time of loss, but we pray that your fond memories, photos, and stories of Johnny will sustain you through this difficult time and always. Your family is a wonderful family who has proven time and time again how supportive you are of each other. Johnny was blessed to have such a wonderful family network around him. He will be missed and will be in our hearts always.
