To the Lolk Family,I was truly saddened to learn of Jane?s passing. One memory of Jane comes to mind that I think about every holiday season. All Saints Christmas services were always very beautiful, but one in particular stands out, and I don?t recall which year it was. Jane and Otto sang the most extraordinary version of Silent night that I had ever heard and it touched my heart forever. I could feel how deep their love was for each other. Treasure your memories of Jane for she will always be your angel.My prayers are with you.Joyce Fanelli

Mom, I miss you so much. You really were my rock. I don't know why, but you were the only person I could really tell everything. I want you to know though that I will never forget you. You will always hold a special place in heart. I love you so much mommy. The last 2 days of your life I held your hand and when you took your last breath, I assumed I would cry but I didn't. I felt this comfort that you would never be in pain again, and also knew that I only lost the physical body of you. I still miss having that physical body to hug, and get head rubs from but I know that you are right next to me every step of the way for the rest of my life. It will be hard starting college this September, but I will do my best because that is what you would want me to do. I hope I will continue to make you proud. Love, Your Baby Boy
