To the family: I do not know you neither did I know Mr Passwaters. However, I was reading the obituary and it is very obvious that he will be really missed by the children and family. Death is really an enemy! Please draw comfort from the scriptures in Revelation 21:4 that talks about a time when mourning, sorrow, outcry, pain, and DEATH will be no more. A time when we would not lose loved ones in death. Yes Almighty God who cannot lie has promised to do this. I know I cannot quench your sorrow. But I do hope that you find comfort in knowing that Almighty God cares deeply for you and will help you cope with your loss. (1st Peter 5:7)

Beth, I don't get the News Journal but one somehow or other showed up at my house today, Saturday, and it was Thursday's edition. I flipped through it casually and landed on the obits page. When I saw Earl's name I grabbed my chest and thought, oh God in heaven, please let this be Earl's dad. I was grief stricken. While I haven't seen you in ages, you are in my thoughts often. There are no words, Beth. What a horrible loss. Take good care of yourself. Deb

Mandy, Scott & Family: I met you two several years ago at a Reece Holbrook fundraiser while my cousin John Martin was still covering Carolina Baseball for sports communications. We visited at the dinner table and I enjoyed meeting and visiting with you both. Please know that we "Old Leaguers", now called Diamond Heels, are thinking of you and the loss you are sharing this week. I never had the opportunity to meet Mr. Passwaters, but he sounds like a Terrific father, fan, and friend. I was in Chapel Hill last weekend for games, and as we have seen, none of us are promised even one more day. Know that I am thinking of you and lifting up my prayers as you will celebrate the wonderful life of your father, Mandy.
