I met your father briefly before he left Cadia in Millsboro since he was rooming with another gentleman I went to visit; we chatted briefly one evening while I was visiting my friend and he was a very interesting man. I am so sorry for your loss.

Dear Granddad, I will miss you dearly. I didn't get to see you as much as I wanted because you lived so far away but I have always loved you. I sincerely hope you are happy and painfree now.
