Randi Lee Hearn

SEP 16, 1954 - APR 9, 2011

Randi Lee Hearn, 56, of Rehoboth Beach, DE passed away on Sunday, April 10, 2011 at her residence. She was born on September 16, 1954 to Luther M. and Patricia A. Hearn in Wilmington, DE.

Randi was a 1972 graduate of Brandywine High School where she was captain of the cheerleading squad her senior year and was also a Blue-Gold All-Star cheerleader. Randi graduated from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro with a degree in Food Nutrition.

After college, she spent time working in California with her cousins Cheryl Wagner McDonald and Lynn Wagner Wendelberger. She later moved back to Wilmington, where she worked at Riverside Hospital as a food nutritionist.

She moved to Rehoboth Beach in 1980 and ran the Country Squire Restaurant with her brother Chip and their father Luther for many years. In 1985, Chip purchased The Starboard Restaurant in Dewey Beach and Randi managed it with Chip and Luther until its sale in 1999 to its present owners. Since then, she was the general manager of Peppers her family's spicy items store in the Midway Galleria in Rehoboth Beach. Chip, Luther and Randi came up with the concept for Peppers while on vacation in Jamaica many years ago when they discovered the great variety of hot sauces available there and sampled dozens of them at great risk to their blood pressure rates.

Randi loved to travel, especially to warm and sunny places. Annual vacations with family and friends on the island of Providenciales in the Caribbean were a special joy. Randi was preceded in death by her mother Patricia "Trish" Hearn. She is survived by her father Luther M. Hearn and her step-mother Jane Hearn; brother Luther "Chip" M. Hearn III; sisters Tracey (Joseph) Alvarez and Alison Bailey; step-sisters Cherri (Erik) Perschmann and Emily Boyle; and stepbrother Guy Wesson. She is also survived by her aunts and uncles and by many nieces and nephews that she loved dearly and to whom she was "the fun aunt," because of her inventive and unpredictable sense of humor. She also will be missed by her faithful canine companion of many years, Pepper.

Shortly after meeting Randi at UNC-G in 1974, I was invited to visit Rehobeth Beach to stay at the Hearn family beach house. 1 day, when Randi joined me at the beach, the waves were perfect for body-surfing. We started competing to see who could get the longest ride. 1 exceptional wave, the ocean spat us out on the beach. We laughed so hard that we didn't notice that Randi's bikini top was catching a ride in on the next wave. It's June 12, 2025 and I'm just discovering that Randi passed 14 years ago. She was the biggest of Beach Boys fans and Brian Wilson died yesterday. God Speed Randi and my belated condolences to the Hearn family.

Sorry for your loss. I used to love The Country Squire in Rehoboth. Best bar I have ever had the pleasure to be in. I was just talking about a guy they called Reverend Billy that played a piano and sang there. I think that was his name. What ever happened to that guy?

Since learning about Randi's death I have been thinking about the many good and crazy times we had in high school and at that house we rented on Naamans road. I am so sorry I won't be able to make her funeral but she will be in my thoughts all that day and many days to come. My thoughts and prayers are with you guys too. I can still see Randi driving that green car she had in high school. Take care Judy Lawton
