in 1975, she took the reins and in her own quiet way, led the family, offering strength and guidance along the way. Learning was important to Helen, and she helped her children excel academically. She moved to Florida in 1979 and experienced some "me time" as she called it. She loved to travel and was especially fond of Ireland, and the north Georgia mountains. She was a real "sun bunny" enjoying the beach in Delaware and the pool in Florida. She loved doing crafts of all kinds and was especially gifted in the art of crocheting. She furnished all of her children and grandchildren with warm, beautiful afghans. She was a "clothes horse" and loved to "shop till she dropped" in her younger years. Helen moved to Marietta, Georgia in 2009 to be closer to family. She never forgot her friends in Delaware and Florida, and left a special friend behind in Texas, Ambrose Czajkowski.

She will be missed by all who loved her.
