George was my AC at Alconbury so many years ago now, apart from him being a really great man and liked by everyone i thought i would mention: we used to all sit down together and watch Videos together as a crew, George would always say "Boony, if i fall asleep and start snoring, wake me and i will go off to bed" If we got past 15 minutes he did well, helped me get promoted, a man i really respected and he will be missed, to his family my condolences.
