My fond and lasting memories of Susie date to my early childhood when she would visit us in New Oxford while Nelson was at war. She would always arrive with gifts of stuffed animals. On one such visit, I was invited to return with her to her parent's home in Altoona, on the train. What a wonderful experience for a six-year-old! I do remember a day at an amusement park, getting spring water from the side of a mountain, and not wanting to leave when my parents came for me a week later. Susie's like kindness continued through my days at Penn when I would travel to Abington for a great home-cooked meal. To a kind and caring Aunt; Good-bye and thank you. Randall
