Wayne X. Cocco, age 61, of Harbeson, Delaware passed away on Wednesday, July 7, 2010 at Delaware Hospice Center, Milford, DE. Mr. Cocco was born on July 20, 1948 in Philadelphia, PA, son of Marie A. (McAnally) Mollick of Harbeson, DE and the late Wayne R. Cocco.

He was a 1966 graduate of St. Thomas Moore High School in Philadelphia, PA and he earned his Associates Degree in Construction Management at a community college in the U.S. Virgin Islands.

Mr. Cocco returned to Delaware in 1995 residing in Harbeson where he specialized in the construction of pools and tennis courts. A real "people person," he enjoyed free lance bartending. In addition to his Father, Mr. Cocco was preceded in death by his sister Jean Higgins. In addition to his Mother, he is survived by four brothers: Thomas Leach and wife Bernadette of East Lansing, MI, John G. Cocco and wife Elizabeth of Lafayette Hills, PA, Glenn D. Cocco and wife Sharon of Santa Monica, CA, and Rev. William T. Cocco, Pastor of Christ Our King Catholic Church, Wilmington, DE; two sisters: JoAnne Sullivan and husband Mark of Andover, MA and Janet Revoir and husband Brian of Ocean View, NJ; and several nieces and nephews.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated on Wednesday, July 14, 2010 at 11:00 AM at Mary Mother of Peace Catholic Church, 30839 Mount Joy Road, Millsboro, DE; friends may call at the church beginning at 10:30 AM. Entombment will be at All Saints Cemetery, Kirkwood Highway, Wilmington, DE.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests memorial contributions be made to Delaware Hospice Center, 100 Patriots Way, Milford, DE 19963.

Our childhood homes were close to each other at Montgomery & 64th. We shared our first "smoke" in the woods across from our houses. a cigar. I think we (he) took it from his father's stash. Mrs. Cocco, you were a great den mother with my Mom assisting. She passed this last Jan. at 87. We had a nice run with her all these years. I pray that you find "solice in the midst of of your woe". My condolences to all. Tom Owens

Our deepest sympathy for your loss, a great deal of my finest memories of growing up and of High School are of Wayne. He was one of the nicest and funniest people I have ever known. I just recently got Wayne's phone number from Bob McCabe and was going to give Wayne a call, the fact that I didn't do this in a more timely manor makes me feel of Wayne even more.

Wayne was one of the funnies people I ever met. His imitations of the the priest and lay teachers at STM was right on. His Maxwell Smart and Jonathan Winters imitations could not be beat.I remember spending a lot of good times with Wayne riding around in his blue and white Rambler. Admission was gas money. About every ten years or so we would make contact and share some laughs. Not more that a month ago I reconnected with Wayne via Facebook and we spoke on the telephone for the good part of an hour,sharing stories and laughs of our time at St. Tommie's and driving through the neighborhood. Wayne was a friend and will be missed. May he rest in peace, with a smile on his face and a laugh in his heart.
