Iris and your dear family . . . our most heartfelt sympathy to all of you. Bob was the most wonderful person . . . honest, sincere and not afraid to express his feelings. He prepared for life, and he also prepared for death. He was a religious man and shared it through word and example. I am truly honored to have called him my "friend". I will cherish the memories of him, and I will keep all of you in my thoughts and prayers. With deepest sympathy and friendship . . .a

Iris and family: It was a shock to learn of Bob's death. We want to extend our deepest sympathies for your loss. "Bobaloo's" presence was always felt at our family gatherings. I have to say that his hobby of "upholding Italian traditions" is befitting a man of his stature. We will miss him. Vince and Mary Kay Rock
