Dear Mrs. Hyde & Family, Please accept my most sincere condolences at the passing of a very fine man whom I always knew and respected - and who insisted from the very first that I always address him as - "Jack". Jack was on the Board of Commissioners when I was hired as Police Chief in Rehoboth Beach in June '91, and throughout my time there he treated me nothing but fairly and respectfully. I always appreciated his support as well as his candor when he would identify a deficiency in the police department or the city's need for certain police services. I will miss him. Sincerely, Creig W. Doyle Chief of University Police Plymouth State University Plymouth, NH

Jack will be missed. I had the honor of learning the ropes of being a trial attorney in Family Court as a young Deputy Attorney General paired Mr. Hyde as the Public Defender. He was the model of professionalism at all times. I will always recall Mr. Hyde as a gentleman above everything else. He practiced law grounded in common sense and fatherly wisdom. He was practical in his resolution of matters and I quickly learned that his view of the big picture of cases was more of an asset to me than just a general advisarial posturing. I guess thats a long winded way of saying I really respected Jack. My sympathies and best wishes to the family. You should be extremely proud of the positive legacy Jack left in all the peoples lives he touched in the legal community.

As a young Wilmington Police officer, Jack taught me well on testifying in court. Sometimes he would take me aside after a case & give me pointers on what to look for when investigationg crimes , or during the case, he would ask questions in such a way as to get the information out.I always felt Jack was about the truth, not as a Public defender trying to get his client off.I always admired Jack, & will miss him.
