I remember in my 16th year, summer at Wildwood, all the uncles and aunts gathering, and Uncle Tommy and Aunt Mary being so accepting and supportive of all the kids. Uncle Tommy took lots of ribbing from his siblings, since he was younger, and Aunt Mary (one of my favorites) was very cool, in spite of the elder Liveseys stodginess (LOL). RIP Uncle Tommy. I am sure Ridley Park still remembers you too!

I'll always remember the generosity of Tom and Mary. Since the days of visiting in Wildwood NJ and the Pennsylvania house. Wish I could have been in touch throughout the last four decades. Seems I missed out on many great family events. Best to everyone!
