To My Pop-Pop, You know you always have had a special place in my heart. My memories of you will never be erased. I miss you so much all ready, but knowing you are in God's hands now brings me more comfort than I will ever be able to express. I will always treasure our time together and I will pray for your soul every day. I just wish I could have said goodbye one last time and expressed my undying love for you. Pop-pop you will never be forgotten and you will be missed every waking moment. I promise to do my best in keeping our family's heads up, even though i know it will be trying at times. You built the mould for a strong family and we will all do our best to keep the foundation just as strong in your memory. I look forward to reuniting with you again one day but until then I will look to the stars and know you are looking back at me. Loving and missing you so much, your misfit..Missy:)
