I am saddened to learn of sweet Cathy's passing. We worked together in bookkeeping at Banco Central on 50 Braodway. The last time I saw her, was sometime in the summer or fall of 1995 when I was pregnant with my daughter, after she had retired. I left the bank in 1996, also. I often think of her and others we worked with. I will pray for her.

Catherine, you were always loved by us. You were a fun & loving person. What a shame your final months of care were disrupted by pure GREED. What does go around, will come around...Rest In Peace, you were a wonderful woman.
