Katherine D. Willin

DEC 31, 1923 - DEC 10, 2007

Katherine Dunford Willin, 83, went to be with the Lord on Monday, 10 December 2007 after a struggle with cancer. She died at her home in Dundee in the care of a local hospice.

Katherine grew up in Dundee, graduated from Haines City High School and in 1946 moved to her husband's home in Bridgeville, Delaware where she was a homemaker and office manger for Scott's Furniture Company. After retirement, she returned to Dundee where she was a faithful member of Baptist Temple.

Katherine was predeceased by her parents, Norman and Eva Dunford of Dundee; husband, Caleb Layton Willin II and daughter, Kathryn Victoria Willin (formerly Smoot and Fidler) of Bridgeville; grandson, Paxton Kaufman Smoot of Greenwood. Her sister, Bernice Evelyn Stubbs (Plymouth FL), died in 1960. She is survived by her daughter, Cheryl Lee Willin, Berkeley, CA; son, Caleb Layton Willin III (Mike & Sandy), Laurel DE; two brothers Ralph Dunford and Raymond (Annabelle) Dunford of Dundee, FL. Additionally, Katherine is survived by seven grandchildren, eleven great-grandchildren, numerous nieces, nephews and great friends who loved her dearly.

The family will receive friends at 1:00 P.M. with a memorial service beginning at 2:00 P.M. on Friday, 21 December 2007 at the Hardesty Chapel, Parsell Funeral Homes, 202 Laws Street, Bridgeville.

In the lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Good Shepherd Hospice for Polk County, 105 Arneson Avenue, Auburndale, FL 33823.
