It is painful to learn from Dana and Roman that they have lost their best friend. It was always a pleasure to listen how much they valued Carl and Halina's friendship -- and the adventures they shared on their vacations. Although we don't know them personally, we got to know them through Dana and Roman. Carl will be missed not only by his friends and family, but by the many patients and medical colleagues. To Halina and family please accept our condolences and may God give you strength and courage to get through this painful ordeal.... Remember the good days. God Bless. Carl was a "good buddy" from St. James HS days (Science Honor Society - we were nerds then) and our Friday night get togethers at Murph's and other hangouts in the late 1960's. Although he went to Drexel and I went to Villanova, I won't hold that against him. In fact, we never played each other in sports - only Czechoslovakian volleyball in the summers. We maintained our friendship through the years with annual reunions, mostly at one of his comfortable and cool houses. He and Halina visited us in Vermont once and we had a blast. My last visit with Carl was this summer when we played "saps at sea" in a Zodiak, chasing after Jay, Honer, Dennis and Jack Breen. Carl joins our other good buddy from those days, Jack Duddy, in some heavenly place. I will sorely miss him.
