Mable Callaham

MAY 1, 1923 - MAR 27, 2006

Mable White Callaham, 82, passed away Monday, March 27, 2006 at Beebe Medical Center in Lewes from complications following hip surgery. She was born May 1, 1923 in Anderson, SC daughter of the late Rev. Dr. E. C. White and Mamie "Cathy" White.

Mable retired as a manager in the children's clothing industry. She was active with Wives of the Wade Hampton Lodge, Scottish Rite Center, Hejaz Shrine Center, Thunderbird Square Dance Group, and she assisted the guides at Shriner's Hospital in Greenville, SC. She was a member of Seaside Church, Lewes, DE.

She was preceded in death by her husband Lewis Callaham, formerly of Greenville, SC. She was also preceded in death by five siblings.

She is survived by her daughter Betsy Regnier and her husband Art; four grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren: Rev. Charles R. Arnold and his wife Erika, and their children, Jennifer and Ryan all of Lewes, DE; David Arnold and his wife Shari of Knoxville, TN and their children, Amanda, Drey, Gordy, Kristi and Cari; Erin Regnier and her son Gavin of Irvine, CA; and Kristy Burns and her husband Bryan of Rancho Santa Margarita, CA and their children Alex and Logan. In addition, she is survived by two sisters: Tommie Jean White Morrison of Belton SC and Joann White Grady of Burlington, NC, and two brothers: E.C. White Jr. and his wife Bobby Jean of Anderson, SC, and Furman White of Anderson, SC.

Funeral Services will be held Saturday, April 1, 2006, 10 AM at Parsell Funeral Homes & Crematorium, 16961 Kings Highway, Lewes with Pastor Charles Arnold presiding. Friends may call one hour prior to the service at the funeral home. Burial will be in Anderson, SC.

In lieu of flowers the family asks that donations be made to the Seaside Church Building Fund, P.O. Box 443, Lewes, DE 19958.
