I met Bob at Gimbel's in 1969. He was a talented designer. He then worked with a close friend of mine and he and Bob were store planners. I had the opportunity to visit with Bob at his apartment at The Society Hill Towers Apartment complex that he shared with his friend John. Because of his terrific eye, his place was beautifully and imaginatively designed. Bob was a lovely person. Though we were never close, I still remember him after all of these years.
