Chris and family,I am so sorry to hear of Walts passing. Even though I havent seen him in years he has always remained in my thoughts. The one story I will leave is well remembered by those who were there is the time we were hanging out at your house with your Popsdrinking Rolling Rock ponies. I was drinking one, already had another open and your had the opener and was popping another one open for me trying to get me to catch up to him. I also remember his phrase from that night, "...get me my keys I gotta drive these boys back to school" and my eyes bugging out thinking..."is he serious?" My thoughts and prayers go out to you and your family. "Big Walt" will be missed.
