In memory of my Father "Robert E.P. Gogerty" My name is Robert Patrick Gogerty II. I am the first born son of 4 siblings. On May 22nd I lost not just my father but my best friend. Being raised by my father was not always easy. I went through boot camp during my first 12 months of life. I was potty trained by the age of three months. At the age of nine months I knew how to tie my own shoes and about 3 months later I had my first date. Thanks Pops. All this said my Father taught me a lot but not limited to; being loyal, respectful, and precise but above all he taught me to do the right things. I am very proud to say; I am my Father's son. Bobby Jr.

Hello, My condolences to the family, Bobby was my cousin, I'm his Uncle Bill's daughter. Sorry I have not been in touch much, we are all so busy with our kids and work. I do remember talking to Cathy on the phone when she worked at Motorola with Bobby. That was funny. My love to the family and you all will be in my prayers. Bobby must have been a his Dad's twin, he too was the practical joker and always doing random acts of kindness. Good to see the pictures, but sorry I did not keep in touch with Bobby and the family. But if you are ever in Sacramento, Ca send me a message. Take care.
