My sincere sympathy to all of the Fritz family. I lived on Gray Avenue in Colonial Heights when Jack and Bonnie were young. (I was a year older than Jack). I baby-sat for all three of you a few times when you lived in Fairfax. When I was young I always loved your Mother's high heeled shoes. She was very stylish. I also remember when your parents were married. I saw Bonnie a number of years ago when we were involved with Job's Daughters. Again, my condolences to your family.
