I'm Albert's neighbor from Bethany Beach. We would talk from time to time in the warm months when he would walk to the cul-de-sac and rest. We would reminisce about the things we knew from our past in Baltimore. He would sometimes forget my name but he always remembered our conversations and would pick up where we left off. I will miss our conversations

Grace, as you know we are truly going to miss Albert and we know how much you and he were devoted to each other. Tom is especially going to miss having his buddy to talk to and tell sea stories with, Al was a true patriot and one of the "great generation". We are sure he is looking down on Bethany Glen with a smile on his face and know that his neighbors will miss him out enjoying the sunshine. Rest in Peace Al, we love you.

RIP Mr. Al; I was a fun childhood out back at Dale, swinging from your tree over the creek, and other stuff was what we all-kids loved about the 'neighborhood'. You were a good firm dad to the kids and we respected you...
