William A. Rock

MAR 28, 1943 - JAN 18, 2015

William A. Rock, 71, of Lewes, DE, a former AT&T executive and independent business owner, died at Delaware Hospice Center, Milford following a brief battle with pancreatic cancer.

Bill was born March 28, 1943, in Monessen, Pa., the son of Juliana (Valo) and Irving I. Rock. He grew up and attended schools in Westbury, N.Y. Bill was a 1964 graduate of Valparaiso University and furthered his education attending Indiana University, where he earned his MBA degree.

Following his graduation from Valparaiso, Bill joined Indiana Bell Telephone Co. and 10 years later moved on to AT&T Corp. in New York City. He rose through various positions in New York and New Jersey to become Director of AT&T Long Distance Service.

In the period leading up to the Bell System breakup in 1984 and the advent of competition in long distance telephone service, he led a marketing group involved in a number of innovative rate experimentation projects. Bill was responsible for the design of Reach Out America, a program of calling plans, the first of their kind, which at its apex had 11 million customers. He also led business case development and recommendations for a number of mergers and acquisitions contemplated and undertaken by AT&T.

In 1991 Bill retired from AT&T and worked briefly as an Executive Director with the Exchange Carrier Association in Whippany, New Jersey. In 1996 he launched his own company, Pioneer Telecom Inc., a long-distance reseller that he owned and operated for 14 years from offices in Allentown, Pa.

Bill retired again in October 2009 to enjoy traveling with his wife, Lynda Fewer, whom he wed in 2008, and spending time with his children and grandchildren.

A long-time resident of Westfield, N.J., he also lived in North Plainfield, Pittstown and Clinton, N.J., before moving to Lewes in 2007. In Lewes, he was active in the Bayfront Environmental

I was proud to work for Bill and with Bill.He was a fair man, an honest man. He kept to himself, always seeing more than he said he saw.In my experience he always tried to do the right thing, no matter the odds. There are many who benefited from his guidance and counsel. I am only one. Rest in Peace Bill.

Lynda & Family; David & Martha, please accept my thoughts and sympathies at this difficult time. I had the pleasure to meet Lynda & "Uncle Billy" at my daughter, Melissa's, marriage to Tim Rock. Bill was a charismatic, articulate, and sweet man who loved his family deeply, and who generously welcomed my daughter into his home and his heart. It was a privilege to have known him; however brief. Judging by his obituary, he had a life that was fully lived, and he was amazingly loved; the hallmarks of a successful existence. God bless you all.
