I'm sorry for your loss. When I was out walking with my dad she would be outside and we would always have a nice talk with her. She was a very kind person.

Ah Grandma...I have many fond memories of Christmas and Thanksgiving with the whole family at your home. On the weekends there was an endless supply of cookies in the cookie jar and the smell of burnt bacon in morning - just the way I like it! Sometimes the smell bacon it takes me right back to your kitchen.Love & Remember you always, Charles T. Precht 3rd (Bucky)
