Tom and I are so saddened to hear about the passing of our dear friend June. June and I taught at Our Lady of Fatima School in New Castle, DE together for about ten years. She retired at about the same time that Tom and I moved to Pennsylvania. I am sad to say that I never saw her again, but we corresponded by cards and e-mail in those years. June, may you rest in peace!

Mrs. Voit was my 5th teacher at St Michael's in Gibbstown, '86-87'. An all time favorite, I thought of her often. She was a great teacher and equally kind. If I remember right, she also had a BMW, that I thought was cool too - as sophisticated as she was!
