Rick and I were roommates, so to speak, at the dialysis center. I looked for him last Wednesday and didn't see him. The nurses held off telling me why I didn't see him until after my treatment was over. I was so terribly sorry to hear about Rick's passing. I was in shock. I cried after I got home and then prayed for him when I went to bed that night. I will miss his smiling face when we said good-bye to each other at the end of our treatments. I shall miss those good-byes, but will say good-bye Rick anyway after my treatments. Please accept my sympathy. I lost a friend, but you lost a husband and father of your children. They and you are in my heart and I shall continue to pray for all of you.

We are deeply sorry to learn of Rick's passing. He was a man who deeply loved his family, as witnessed at Brian and Caitlin's wedding. It was an inspiration to see him escort his beautiful wife down the aisle, to see him smile and laugh that evening and he danced...what a beautiful memory to cherish and hold on to. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all. Larry, Sue and Cullen
