From the time my father, Bill Joseph, and Mac met in school in Lewes they were friends. Through the years they shared many stories of their lifelong business and personal friendship. By the way, they stories were sometimes very funny as they were very ornery! I never bought a car before I called Mac to get his opinion of that model first, he was such an expert on vehicles! Especially during Father's Day weekend, thanks for being such a great friend to my dad. Condolences from the Quillen family to Alberta and family. Dayna
