Glenn and I were the best of friends. We got together on a regular basis and had laughs as we solved the world's problems while having few responsibilities. Glenn was a man's man; honest, forthright, dependable and generous. I was lucky to have known him for so long. When I was in his company I felt better about myself. Glenn was a friend that I can't replace. His absence will be missed by so many. May he rest in peace.- Matt
