Dear Pat and Don: John and I wish to express our sincere condolences for your loss. I remember Mr. Douglass as a very pleasant, fun loving, easy going, humorous man. I remember he always had a joyful giggle and sense of humor. He used to get such a kick out of seeing Pat's dog Princess jump straight up in the air about 5 feet whenever she would say to Princess: "You want to go out?"Love this picture of him with the camera. I remember he was always taking photographs and he enjoyed it so much. Both Mr. and Mrs. Douglass always made me feel welcome and at home there on Maple Avenue in South Plainfield. They were so easy to talk to and always good company. We also extend our sympathies to your children and grandchildren. Will always remember him Fondly. Love, Cath and John
