Mr. Sam was the closest thing we had to Ward Cleaver down in the neighborhood. Unknowingly, he was a role model to many of us kids. Heaven has gained a good man. My deepest sympathy to his family.

Sam's wife Anne was my first cousin and while attending Loyola College in Baltimore during the late 1940's and serving in the army in Washington, DC in the early 1950's my brother Dick and I spent a fair amount of time with Anne. It was during those years we met Sam, the love of Anne's life - a great guy and always fun to be with. My late wife Peggy and I visited Sam and Anne regularly after their retirement to Rehoboth Beach always hearing about their children and later their grandchildren. My heartfelt sympathies to all of you. I am certain Sam is now at peace enjoying his reunion with Anne, the love of his life. God bless all of you.
