Mike was a neighbor and a friend. He was always smiling and was sure to say hello if he saw you. I believe he found joy in maintaining his garden out front and he loved to barbecue as we would see him do often. He was so proud and protective of his Dodge Muscle car that him and Lisa were finally able to purchase. I know he got great joy when my daughter would bring over her baby as his eyes lit up when he saw her. I can only imagine how good a father he must have been. We will miss him dearly and our hearts go out to his wife Lisa and all his family. May God console you and keep you in his arms now and in the future.

Dear Asman Family:I wish to convey my sincerest condolences to your entire family. Losing a loved one in death is one of the hardest things that anyone will ever have to deal with. There is a great hope held out to us for the future because God promises to bring those we lost back to life by means of a resurrection to a paradise earth, where sickness and death will be no more. I hope this brief message will bring you a measure of comfort in this difficult time.

Lisa, When I first met Mike, I knew he was a wonderful guy, and I was so very happy for you that you two had found each other. My heart is so sad for you now. It is so hard to lose someone you love. He was so good for you and the boys, and each time I saw him when we got together, I knew you all were happy and contented. Cherish the memories you made together, and he will be with you always. My love and thoughts are with you. Myra
