Brother, you "Got It Right in life" so you did your-cross over as did all our family members before you. You will be missed, loved and thought of forever. We four boys, You, Norman, Harry and Donald always had a tough row to hoe, but now you can kickback, relax, have a Henie and talk to the rest of them about times passed. I miss you Dude and tell them all hello. Keep a cold one on ice for me and always stay fishing. I love you Frank. Be happy and Semper Fi to you, with respect and admiration always, Norm.

Frank was one of my favorites at The Milford Center. He was a kind man with a sarcastic sense of humor and a lot of stubbornness. We all loved him dearly and are so sorry for your loss.

Pop Reinoehl had a fabulous green thumb. He tenderly cared for his garden including a grape vine that belonged to his mother, which was moved on several occasions. He loved fishing and crabbing and enjoyed sharing his harvest. Gone but never forgotten. Thanks for the memories Pop. Peg
