Louise R. Wagner

SEP 26, 1929 - FEB 22, 2016

Louise R. Wagner passed away on Monday, February 22, 2016, in Lewes, Delaware. She was 86 years old.

Born in Laurel, Delaware to the late Clarence (Jim) Riggin and Beatrice Scott Riggin, Louise grew up in Wilmington where she graduated from P.S. DuPont High School. Following graduation, she worked first at the Security Trust Co. in Wilmington followed by a career at Johnson's Pharmacy in Greenville. She retired in 1973 from Hercules Inc. in Wilmington, where she worked as a secretary.

Louise enjoyed organizing and what she called "desk work". Following retirement, she volunteered at the Delaware Art Museum and the Ronald McDonald House in Wilmington. She and husband Ken lived in Montreal, Canada for several years where she organized and arranged the Montreal General Hospital's annual fundraisers. Many wonderful friends were made during those years.

In addition to her parents, Louise was preceded in death by her husband of 26 years, Kenneth A. Wagner, and a sister, Anne Lautenklos. She is survived by her daughters, Debra Dawson of Lewes and Susan (David) Skiles of Manassas; son, Michael Wagner of Newark; her sisters, Norma Adams of Lewes and Patricia (Lee) Peterson of Texas; grandchildren Christa (Michael) Policella and Alexander (Kendall) Wagner; a great-granddaughter, Olivia; nephews Richard, David, Charles, Glen and niece, Sandra.

Almeda Cole sent a virtual gift in honor of Louise.

Mrs. Wagner was always a gracious host whenever I visited whether it was in Wilmington or Montreal. While she had an appreciation of the finer things life offered her, she could also put her feet up and enjoy a hot dog in a bun while conversing with family and friends . Now she can enjoy peace, rest and good health.Almeda Cole
