I have only known Joe a short while, about a year. We talked a lot about accepting the past as something you can't change. Of knowing it is a part of you and moving steadily forward to overcome internal struggles and be in a better place. I truly believe Joe is in a better place and at peace. Rob Reyes

Joey loved his ferrel cats and took great care of them. They would follow him when he would go to get his paper and mail only so far and wait for his return. He was a troubled man but should not have died liked he did
