Randy Dewain Brewster

MAR 27, 2016

Randy Dewain Brewster, 54, joined other divas in that heavenly chorus on Easter Sunday, March 27, 2016, to now more fully share in the resurrection. Randy died peacefully at home, comforted by his precious dog Baxter.

Born in Washington, D.C., Randy moved to Rehoboth Beach 15 years ago, where he discovered real family who love him for the uniquely beautiful person God created him to be.

A skilled financial specialist with nearly 30 years of problem solving experience, Randy worked tirelessly over the last decade for Right Property Management. He shared his passion for music widely, including on a chorus trip to the Holy Land, and was a member of the parish choir of All Saints' Church and St. George's Chapel, the Mixed Blessings chorus, and formerly the Southern Delaware Choral Society, the Clear Space Chorus, and several D.C.-area choirs. Randy was a gourmet and a faithful and generous weekly guest at several local restaurants, and is beloved for his brilliant wit.

Randy leaves a large acquired family of loved ones to grieve his sudden passing, including his All Saints' parish family, companions Joe Pinto and John Klenert, and business parents Martha and Jerry Wright.

All are invited to celebrate Randy's life Saturday, April 9, at 11 a.m. at All Saints' Church, 18 Olive Ave., Rehoboth Beach, with a reception to follow in the parish hall. Donations to the parish's music fund may be contributed in his name to the above address.

Area choristers who wish to participate in Randy's service are asked to contact parish Director of Music Jackson Borges at 302-227-7202 Ext. 108 or jborges@allsaintsandstgeorges.org.

FLORIST NOTE: PLEASE HAVE ALL FLORAL ARRANGEMENTS DELIVERED TO THE CHURCH.

I am a cousin of Randy's. I have fond memories. of him as a child attending family reunions. He was always fun to be around. This is such a shock and is so sad. We did love him! Deana

So sad to hear of your passing. I remember the day you took me to my senior prom many moons ago. God Bless you and may you rest in peace.

Randy was one of our nephews. He was always very nice and polite. Have not seen him in years but we still love him, rest in peace. Uncle John and Aunt Helen
