Jack and I have known Richard for close to 40 years. During that time Richard was always a kind, caring, considerate and helpful friend. He is now in God's loving arms and enjoying a libation with his dear friends Vince and Bill. Susan, our thoughts and prayers are with you and your families. We are here for you always. Richard you will be dearly missed by all. Rest in peace. Love, Anne Marie and Jack

Richards passing has a void in the hearts of many , including mine . A sad day , the burial of a fellow veteran , a great neighbor and a good man .a mentor to me .I will miss his lectures on the worlds politics , and his unwavering dedication to Fox news his Republican views and political attitude . Which we disagreed often .Always ready to give an opinion on almost any subject .Spending afternoons on his rear patio , with Maddie his faithful dog .He will be missed !! celebrate the life of Rich I knew .
