There isn't enough room to write all the wonderful memories we have of Granddaddy. From static electricity shocks to funny animal stories to just plain old good laughs, he will be so missed but not forgotten. He was a better and more loved grandfather to my daughter than the one she is related to. Great hugs, great laugh, great advice, great man. With so much love to his family and prayers for healing broken hearts, Love, Betty and Haven Lopez

Dear Turley's, I am so sorry for your loss. Uncle Chuck truly will be missed. He always had words of encouragement for anyone that he was with. Both him and aunt Barb filled a void in my life with the passing of my parents. I will always be thankful for the many phone conversations. Again I say "always words of encouragement". It was extremely difficult to pay for a meal when you were with uncle Chuck, he always got the tab. I think he knew all of the waitresses in America. We will always have fond memories of growing up with uncle Chuck in our lives. Love ya!! Scott & Kelly Hill
