Mommom I miss you so much! All the hour long calls I use to complain about when I was younger and the way you had to have things done your way when I was helping you I'd give anything to share some time with you now. I'll forever be grateful for all you have done for me. You thought me so much I wish I would of wrote down A lot of your recipes and the family history. I miss your cooking and all our long talks and playing family fued with you when it came on t.v. im so glad I got to spend all the time I did with you before you passed I pray your in a better place now love Steven Carney Jr

Sally was like a second mom to me for many of my formative years. I'll remember all the times on ivy lane with Art and other friends. Sally yelling out to us on the way out on the town.....Art you know what she always said! Later visiting her and her boys at the two different beach houses. God Bless all of you my friends!
