Although we were never really close I always enjoyed being in the company of Nick. I always considered him to be cool and very comfortable in his skin. I will always be grateful for the direction he sent my brother Pete's career which enabled Pete to go through life with great success. I will never forget Nick. Rest in peace brother. Sam Tunanidas

I have many fond memories of my dear uncle Nick , from cookouts at his house, to day trips with him and uncle Gus and all the cousins at the beach. I will miss his bright smile, sharp wit, and generous heart. May his strength live on in your hearts.I regret that we will not be able to attend due to my son's recent surgery, but my thoughts and prayers will be with you. Please call on me if there's anything else I can do.Wishing you God's peace, Kim, Silas and John Rock
